

Schedule a Flu Vaccine Today

While getting your flu vaccine between September and October is recommended, receiving the vaccine during the winter months still offers protection from the flu. To schedule a flu vaccine, request an appointment through MyHealth or contact your primary care team.

Protect yourself and others by scheduling your flu vaccine today.