

Share Tradition,

Not Respiratory Illness

Tradition should be shared with loved ones this holiday season, not respiratory illness.

Wearing a mask, staying home when sick, handwashing, and staying up to date on vaccines are preventative measures we can all take to reduce the spread of COVID-19, RSV, and the flu.

For more information on COVID-19, RSV, and the flu, scan the QR code or visit southcentralfoundation.com.

