

Protect Critical Documents and Valuables

Take steps to protect your important documents from various hazards.

Store your valuables and important documents in waterproof or water-resistant containers.

Take an inventory of your household documents, contacts, and valuables that you might need for identification or documentation for assistance.

For financial preparedness information, check out the Emergency Financial First Aid Kit at fema.gov.

https://www.fema.gov/sites/default/files/documents/fema_effak-toolkit.pdf

For other preparedness information visit: ready.alaska.gov.

FEMA is committed to providing equal access to our programs and services without discrimination. If you require a reasonable accommodation for language services, including interpretation or translation, or other accessibility needs call or text 907-727-6221 or email FEMA-language-accessrequest@fema.dhs.gov

FEMA